WEDNESDAY EVENING, APRIL 8, 1896.

TITLED AND TATTOOED.—Lady Randolph Churchill is the only woman in the English peerage who can boast of being tattooed. The tattooing was done when she was traveling in India, and was suggested by her noticing the operation as it was being performed on a British sailor. She sent for the artist and asked for some designs. He suggested the symbol of eternity—a snake holding its tail in its mouth. Lady Churchill liked it, and the result is a beautifully executed snake coiled round her arm just above the wrist. As a rule a broad gold band covers it, but personal friends have seen it and have heard the story of the tattooing.

FARM HANDS FROM VIRGINIA.—There is an over-supply of farm laborers in the lower section of Gloucester county, N. J., owing to the large number of Virginia negroes who have flocked there. Many who have been unable to obtain work have not the means to return, and are dependent on the resident colored people for subsistence. The fact that these colored wanderers will work for almost any price has caused great dissatisfaction among the natives.

It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by Ernest L. Allen.

The latest results of pharmaceutical science and the best modern appliances are available in compounding Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Hence, though half a century in existence as a medicine, it is fully abreast of the age in all that goes to make it the standard blood-purifier.

To the Golden Gate.—Personally conducted tours via Pennsylvania Railroad will leave New York and Philadelphia for California and return to those cities May 7th. Four and one-half weeks will be allowed in California. An addition to the magnificent train is a through Pullman compartment car, the very best that the company can supply. Applications should be made to 1196 Broadway, New York, or Room 411, Broad Street Station, Philadelphia.
